Paul Gustave Fischer, "The Artist Painting En Plein Air"

November 02, 2019
PLEIN AIR ON THE SQUARE

The fourth annual plein air art competition in Snyder, Texas will be hosted by the 1818 Arthouse. It is open to all artists, regardless of residence, and provides a great opportunity for artists and the community to connect. The competition area allows artists to work anywhere within the Snyder city limits. Unlike most plein air competitions, this event is NOT explicitly for painters; any art medium is welcome.

GENERAL RULES

- Artists may create their artwork of anyone or anything while outdoors within the Snyder city limits.
- Subject matter should be depicted from life. No reproductions from photographs or artwork allowed.
- Artwork must be started and completed within the time limits set up by the competition.
- Artwork must be delivered to the 1818 Arthouse no more than 30 minutes after the competition closes.
- Artists are responsible for providing their own supplies.
- Artists may not physically modify or damage any object or structure.
- Frames are highly encouraged (especially for artists entering the professional category).
- Artists are responsible for removing their artwork at the close of the reception. Any artwork left behind will be held for 7 days, after which time it becomes property of the 1818 Arthouse.
- Artists must list their final artwork for sale during the reception. The 1818 Arthouse retains 25% of any sales.
- Artists under the age of 18 must be registered by a parent or legal guardian.

ITINERARY

Early registration is encouraged; however, artists may choose to register up through the morning of the event between 9:00 and 10:00 A.M.

November 02, 2018 - Competition Day!

9:00-10:00 AM – Mandatory Artist Registration and Orientation at the 1818 Arthouse. At this time, artists must submit their paper/canvas/etc. to be marked on the back by gallery staff. Any unmarked entries turned in at the end of the day will NOT be accepted.

10:00 AM – The Competition begins! You may set up early, but absolutely no brushstrokes/pencil lines/etc. before!

1:00 PM – Competition closes. One artwork per artist is to be delivered to the 1818 Arthouse by 1:30p. Note: Artwork will be displayed on the artist’s own easel or laid on provided tables.

1:30-3:00 PM – Reception and awards.

COMPETITION JUDGE

Holle Humphries of Lubbock, Texas.
